- V. Updates from Trillium – Amy started with an update on Compassion Reaction. Hopefully everyone got the constant contact invite. Compassion Reaction is the project that has Youth Move, My Strength, Youth Mental Health First Aid, and Rachel's Challenge. August 27th is the launching for the Compassion Reaction at the Hilton Riverside. Don Scott will be presenting. Marzano is the academic piece to Rachel's Challenge, this will get the schools on board. Amy stated that she will not get to talk to the Principle's until September 3 and then she will be meeting with the Curriculum Committee. She would like every board member who can to attend this meeting. The program works with the Principle's setting up an hour long assembly. Then the teachers have in-service training. Then the school will have 100 students to form The Friends of Rachel Club. They will spend the day with the Rachel's Challenge people. Afterward there will be two community events. (At this point Amy shows the Rachel's Challenge video.) Amy hands out copies of the video asking the board to show this to as many audiences as they can. This is for the Middle and High Schools. Greg Worthington asks if the other counties will be involved. Amy states that Columbus and Bladen are not going to be part of this. There is some discussion about who to talk to in the schools and the School Board.
