

Regulations on Political Signs

From the Brunswick County Unified Development Ordinance
10.7.7. Campaign/Political Signs

A. Description

A sign without a commercial message that relates to an election or other event.

B. Standards

Within seven days of the election (closing of polls), all signs must be removed.

- Committees are responsible for picking up their signs following an election to adhere to state and local regulations.
- Private roads would be in a municipality or unincorporated. Questions regarding unincorporated areas should be directed to the Brunswick County Planning Department at (910) 253-2025.
- Development HOA rules vary.
- Any inquiries about signs in DOT right of ways (state roads) should be referred to the district office for Brunswick: <https://www.ncdot.gov/contact/Pages/county-contacts.aspx>

---

Individual municipalities may have rules regarding campaign signs that differ from the county. For clarification of those rules, you may contact the individual municipalities.

Bald Head Island	910-457-9700	Northwest	910-655-3110
Belville	910-371-2456	Oak Island	910-278-5011
Boiling Spring Lakes	910-363-0025	Ocean Isle Beach	910-579-2166
Bolivia	910-253-5303	Sandy Creek	910-655-3153
Calabash	910-579-6747	Shallotte	910-754-4032
Carolina Shores	910-575-4877	Southport	910-457-7900
Caswell Beach	910-278-5471	St. James	910-253-4730
Holden Beach	910-842-6488	Sunset Beach	910-579-6297
Leland	910-371-0148	Varnamtown	910-842-3095
Navassa	910-371-2432		